

Please get the NAB off our backs! XM radio is one of the most useful and innovative sources of information and entertainment to come along in many years. The NAB should join the crowd rather than fight it. We gladly pay substantially for the service we enjoy and there is no legitimate reason for politics and vested interests to get in the way.